Course – Packages and Utilities – Archive vs Export

Archive

An archive will contain all course teaching material (linked and non-linked files from the content collection) and student data. Archives are much larger than an export due to the student data that is included.

Export

An export will contain all course teaching material. From the content collection, it will include only the files that are being used (linked).